STEM SUMMER CAMP

JULY 20–24
AT NOTRE DAME OF MARYLAND UNIVERSITY

ndm.edu/stemcamp

Waters of the World

STEM IS EXCITING!

Theme:
Waters of the World
Registration: Opens
February 1
Grades: K–10

We inspire elementary, middle, and high school students to discover how exciting STEM exploration can be!

Join us to explore underwater habitats and the creatures that live there. Campers will engage in hands-on STEM activities focused on how organisms survive in aquatic environments and the engineering developments humans have designed to explore these locations. Students entering grades K-10 are welcome to enroll.

Notre Dame of Maryland University is endorsed by the Maryland State Department of Education as a leader in developing progressive STEM programs.

A DAY IN THE LIFE OF A CAMPER

A typical day in the life of our campers might look like this:

8:30–9:30	Team Building
9:30–10:30	STEM Activity
10:30–10:45	Snack
10:45–11:45	STEM Activity
12:00–1:00	Lunch
1:00–3:00	Work on week-long STEM project
3:00–3:30	Outreach with local partner
3:30–4:00	Arts & Crafts/Outdoor Activity with Afternoon Snack
4:00–5:30	Swimming

Campers are placed in small groups with a lead counselor who work with the group throughout the week. Counselors are teachers who have participated in the Master's in Leadership in Teaching: STEM Program at Notre Dame of Maryland University. The camp is run by Professors in STEM fields. Full biographies are available online at ndm.edu/STEMcamp.
