COVID UPDATES

Thank you for your vigilance in monitoring your children's health as we have moved towards parent choice for masking. We are still following the established guidelines regarding being tested for symptoms or quarantine for symptoms.

Thank you to the Fathers' Club for removing the shields from the middle school desks. As your students may have told you, at the present time, the children are still eating lunch in the classroom, but are no longer eating in shifts. Classes are now having music and art in their respective classrooms rather than in their homerooms. At recess, classes will stay in grade levels, but not in homeroom cohorts. As other changes are considered and/or instituted, we will provide you with updates.
